Supreme Court Case No. S-18167
Superior Court Case No. 3AN-11-9818 CI

NOTICE AND EXPLANATION OF NON-PARTICIPATION

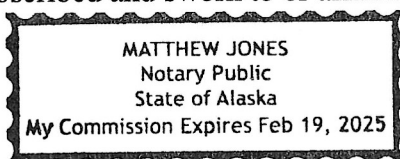

Appellant's brief struggles to support his points on appeal by offering a twisted presentation of our case. James had an extensive evidentiary hearing prior to being returned to a final custody order from years ago that he had argued to be reinstated, while not even fully meeting the requirements the Court had set for him to regain that order. His steadfast refusal to accept the Superior Court's authority in adopting the Parenting Coordinator's recommendations from 2017 does not mean his objections have not been addressed, it only means he didn't like the outcome and is still complaining. James did not previously object to the substance of PC's billing. He instead objected to her personally while failing to identify a cognizable complaint for the Court to consider. There has been no violation of due process in any aspect of this case, but there has been gross abuse of the process through vexatious relitigation.

This is my notice of non-participation moving forward. I previously filed my objections in my Motion to Dismiss Appeal and Opposition to Late Filed Appeal.
